

Cornwall Air Ambulance

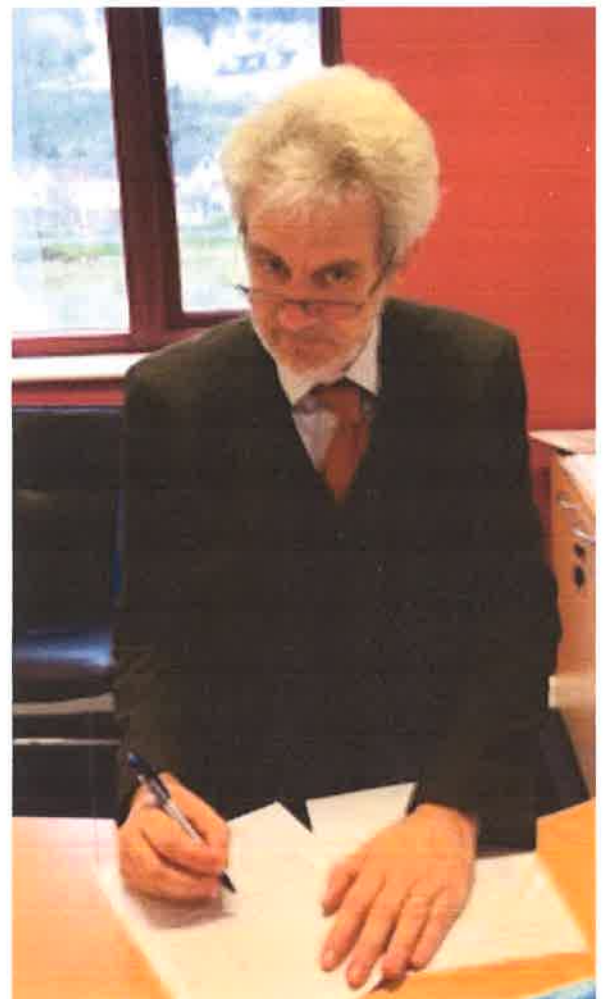

Our Truro office are

Sending A Grumpy Old Man Into The Hills

in support of the Cornwall Air Ambulance.

Bishop Fleming

Robert Bailey is 57, so he is knocking on a bit, and he can certainly be a bit grumpy if anyone gets between him and a cream cake, so to raise money for our designated charity for 2018, we are sending Robert off to attempt the National 3 Peaks Challenge, climbing Ben Nevis, Scafell Pike & Snowdon, the highest mountains in Scotland, England & Wales, all within 24 hours, including travelling between each mountain. Please support us (and Robert) by sponsoring him or donating to his JustGiving page.

Point your iPhone camera at this QR code to go straight to Robert's JustGiving page, and follow Robert's blog, or go to www.justgiving.com/fundraising/robert-bailey10

Check out our hash tag - #SAGOMITH

Saving time. Saving lives. Funded by people like you.

www.cornwallairambulance.org • Tel: 01637 889926 • enquiries@cornwallairambulance.org

Registered charity: 1133295 • Trevithick Downs, Newquay, Cornwall, TR8 4DY